REPORT OF THE PROGRAMME

Department of Business Economics (shift-II) conducted a one agro economics survey cum workshop on 03/03/2021 at Melchittamoor, Tindivanam. 37 students from both Economics and Business Economics along with six teaching faculties participated in the programme.

The students along with 6 staff members were taken to the site through a chartered bus. The bus reached the village by late forenoon, where Father.A.Arokiya Dass briefed about the demography of the village, the farming and cultivation pattern and impact of the pandemic on the village. He also led the team of students and staffs to the paddy field and demonstrated few farming techniques. The students also conducted the survey on the socio economic conditions of the farmers residing at the chosen site.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAMME

- ❖ The students learnt about the demography of the village.
- ❖ The students were educated about the different types of crops grown in that area.
- ❖ Students also experienced on hand cultivation practices.
- ❖ They were made aware of different procurement schemes.
