Minutes of the Grievance Redressal Committee Meeting - November 2020 ESE

Due to global pandemic Covid-19, the entire process of conduct of examinations and evaluations were conducted in the virtual mode, platform provided by Faculty Alliance Logistics Ltd.

Technical grievances: Virtual examinations (held from 02.02.2021 to 06.02.2021) led to technical grievances especially with students in remote locations who had unstable internet connectivity, power cuts, and we also received corrupt and invalid answer scripts when candidates had virus-infested gadgets. Issues regarding downloading of question papers and uploading of answer scripts on the vendor portal especially when server was down were monitored by the Class teacher and respective Head of the Department. Discrepancies were routed through the Examinations Committee comprising of Commerce Faculty members and brought to the notice of the Chief and Additional Examination Superintendents, Prof. Seshadrinathan and Dr. Prabha Rajagopalan, on the same day of the examinations and for immediate redressal. The six-member Examinations Committee along with two technical experts were onsite everyday to monitor the online examinations. Daily reports were taken from the vendor's portal to ensure all students uploaded their scripts.

Methodology for registering grievances: Besides bringing any discrepancy to the notice of the respective Class/Subject teachers and Head of the Department, for first year candidates a google link was posted on the college website and a separate email: coeofficial@gmail.com was created for candidates to register their grievances within 7 days after publication of results. These were forwarded to the respective departments for resolving the same.

30th December 2019

Minutes, Grievance Redressal Committee Meeting
November 2019 End Semester Examinations

Methodology for registering grievances:

Examinations Committee: comprising Chief, Additional and an External Superintendent monitored the distribution of question paper and documented any discrepancy in the question paper(s) that were represented by students or faculty members. The same was reported to the COE office on all the examination days.

Camp Officer, Valuation: Dr. Nandini Sivaraman, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics and Dr. Sulupriya, Head, Department of Social Work, consulted the Chairpersons of the respective Boards, for fixing the anomalies in the question paper during evaluation. The remarks or decisions of the Chairpersons was conveyed to both the External and the Internal examiners and anomalies were addressed mostly during the Valuation. Oversight, if any, in the Answer keys/Scheme of Valuation were also reported by the Camp Officer, whose mediation between the Examiners and the Chairpersons was crucial. The percentage of varied anomalies reported in the question paper was 5 %, out of the 1,216 question papers set by the external examiners.

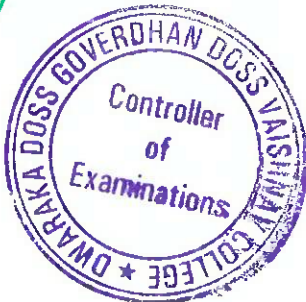

Internal Valuation Monitoring Committee, (IVMC): The Camp and Additional Camp Officer appointed faculty members from the various departments for the Valuation monitoring.

IVMC Rectification: Chairpersons of the respective Boards were called to award marks to the unmarked answers.

Photocopying: of answer scripts was introduced. Candidates applying for Revaluation were encouraged to apply for a photocopy of their answer script for more transparency in the examination system.

Revaluation: 179 answer scripts were revalued by a new set of External Examiners and was coordinated by Additional COE, Dr. S. Narayanan and COE staff, Ms. Manimegalai.

30th October 2020

Minutes, Grievance Redressal Committee Meeting
April 2020 Online End Semester Examinations

Online End Semester Examinations due to Covid-19 pandemic: Due to global pandemic and lockdown, the entire process of examinations and evaluations had to be modified and made online. Duration of examination was reduced to 90 minutes; more choices were given to candidates. Examinations were conducted through the online portal of third-party agency, Shikshayati Edu. April examinations were conducted during late September and as per directions of the higher authorities.

Technical grievances: Online examinations resulted in technical grievances. Examination candidates were asked to do a mock test. Unstable internet connectivity and infrastructural challenges also were other factors and many students faced issues while downloading the question paper or uploading their answer scripts on the vendor portal.

Methodology for registering grievances: Board Chairpersons/Program Nodal Officers, Subject and Class teachers/Course Nodal Officers, Faculty coordinators had to report any technical grievance to the Program Nodal who in turn had to report to the Examination Committee comprising Dr. Prema, Head Department of Economics and Prof. J. P. Jaideep. Examination whatsapp group, Evaluation whatsapp group and each class had a whatsapp group for registering grievances. Technical issues faced by faculty members were posted on the group and routed through Camp Officer, Dr. J. Sathish, Assistant Professor in Commerce and Dr. K. Moneesh Kumar, Assistant Professor in Corporate Secretaryship. Dr. S. Narayanan, Additional COE, mediated between the vendor and the Examinations and Valuation Committee, for resolving all technical issues that arose during the conduct of online examinations and valuation.

28th December 2018

Minutes, Student Grievance Redressal Committee Meeting
November 2018 End Semester Examinations

Methodology for registering Grievances:

Examinations Committee: comprising Chief, Additional and an External Superintendent monitored the distribution of question paper and documented any discrepancy in the question paper(s) that were represented by students or faculty members. The same was reported to the COE office on all the examination days.

Camp Officer, Valuation: Dr. R. Kumaran, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, consulted the Chairpersons of the respective Boards, for fixing the anomalies in the question paper during evaluation. The remarks or decisions of the Chairpersons was conveyed to both the External and the Internal examiners and anomalies were addressed mostly during the Valuation. Oversight, if any, in the Answer keys/Scheme of Valuation were also reported by the Camp Officer, whose mediation between the Examiners and the Chairpersons was crucial.

Internal Valuation Monitoring Committee, (IVMC): Due to the switch from Double Valuation, (evaluation methodology employed since 2009), to Single Valuation for candidates admitted during 2018, the IVMC was constituted for checking section-wise and overall total and to observe any inconsistencies. Dr. Prabha Rajagopalan, along with four Coordinators representing Arts, Sciences, Commerce and Languages streams and faculty members from every department closely monitored the Valuation. The Committee observed that some of the examiners awarded more marks than the stipulated marks, had awarded marks for students who had attempted more questions than the prescribed limit, and a few had missed evaluating answers. Based on IVMC's reports and data, examiners who did not match the standards, were removed from the approved list.

IVMC Rectification: The Chairpersons of the respective Boards were called to award marks to the unmarked answers.

Revaluation: 184 answer scripts were revalued by a new set of External Examiners. Dr. S. Narayanan, Additional COE and Ms. Manimegalai, Confidential Section, COE, coordinated the Revaluation.
